Away from work I have just finished 4 years as Clitheroe Rugby Club 1st XV Captain, a role i was voted into unanimously year on year. I took the decision to step down due to the birth of my daughter Elodie. I am a keen chef and enjoy reading across an array of genres. As seen through the rest of my C.V. I enjoy constant progression and am naturally inquisitive which brought me to learning web design. I have always had an interest in computing and in all roles I have demonstrable experience working with I.T. and its various facets. My goal is to earnestly pursue a career in the tech sector and would love to do so with yourselves
